Dear Mr. Robertson:

Thank you very much for your letter of 3 February inviting me to speak at the Annual Meeting of the Cincinnati and Hamilton County
Salvation Army Association on 23 May.

I sincerely regret that I will be unable to join you as I have a prior commitment on that date to address the Air War College at the Maxwell Air Force Base. It was very kind of you to invite me again and I greatly appreciate the interest that you have shown in asking me to be the featured speaker at your Annual Meetings.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Mr. Allen W. Dulles
Director

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Two years ago, we invited you to be the featured speaker at the Annual Meeting of the Cincinnati and Hamilton County Salvation Army Association, but unfortunately you had a conflict on our date and were unable to accept.

This year again we would like to invite you to be our featured speaker. The date is May 23 and the occasion is the luncheon attended by approximately six hundred of Cincinnati's leading citizens.

To refresh your memory, I am attaching a copy of my letter of April 3, 1958.

We are very hopeful that you can accept and can assure you of an interested and worthwhile audience.

Yours very truly,

C. M. Robertson, Jr., President
Cincinnati and Hamilton County Salvation Army Association

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Quite a number of Cincinnatians who have had the pleasure of hearing you speak and have known you personally have urged that I invite you to be the featured speaker at the Annual Meeting of the Cincinnati and Hamilton County Salvation Army Association on May 21.

The Association is made up of over 25,000 people who have financially or otherwise supported the Salvation Army in this area. The meeting will be at Noon and we expect six or seven hundred of Cincinnati's leading citizens to be present.

Previous speakers have been Neil McElroy, now Secretary of Defense, Jack S. Parker, Vice President of General Electric and Carl Rich, Judge of the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas.

We feel that this is an important meeting that falls within your area of interest and sincerely hope that you can arrange to be with us.

Yours very truly,

C. M. Robertson, Jr., President
Cincinnati and Hamilton County Salvation Army Association
